

“5 Minutes With.....” Speaker Questionnaire

Why do you love what you do?

Our work lives are so important! When we create better work lives for people we actually improve their life in general.

What can our 2018 ALPMA Summit delegates expect to hear from you?

How we can understand what a) makes people feel engaged and b) what helps people do their best work. Also c) is that you will learn a whole lot about managing yourself to get the most out of your day

What part of the Summit are you most looking forward to?

Meeting people who are responsible for the work environment and passionate about making it better.

Fun Fact! What’s one thing you can share that most of our delegates don’t know about you?

I used to stutter when I was a kid! Most people find this amusing because I speak to people for a living now.....

What does the 2018 ALPMA Summit theme “Shaping the future firm – it starts with you” mean to you?

The future of work is so different to what we are doing now. In fact I think we’re still stuck in the past. Changing the way we manage people and the way people manage themselves needs to keep pace with the work that people do and the new definition of what makes us successful.

Why should our delegates come view your presentation?

It will be informative and entertaining. And you will leave being able to make massive changes to a lot of people’s lives.

In three words, how would you colleagues describe you?

Energetic, Positive, Caring.
